

L01: Homework Answer Key

Instructions: You are encouraged to collaborate with other students on the homework, but it is important that you do your own work. Before working with someone else on the assignment, you should attempt each problem on your own.

1. If your class meets on Tuesday and Friday, on what days will you have Group Preparation?

The Tuesday/Friday schedule has Group Preparation each Monday and Thursday.

2. If your class meets on Monday and Thursday, on what days will you have Group Preparation?

The Monday/Thursday schedule has Group Preparation each Friday and Wednesday.

3. What kind of textbook will you be using?

The textbook we use in this course is a wiki (think Wikipedia) and is available online. It was written by members of the Statistics Faculty and is available to you for free. You can access the textbook here.

4. Write a personal Plan of Success for this course in the space provided. Explain the specific things you are going to do to make sure you succeed. When and where will you study? How long will you study? When will you plan to get help? What are you going to do if you start to struggle? What will you do when other distractions or problems make it difficult to persevere in your work?

You should have written several thought-out sentences describing what you will do to succeed in the course this semester.

5. Go to the Course folder, University Resources folder, BYU-Idaho Help Desk.. Take note of the helpful information you find there.

6. If your Group Preparation sessions will be with an online tutor, go to the Course Resource Folder and visit the Adobe Connect Help link. Take note of the helpful information you find there.\

7. Visit the TA Information Sheet link. This is the link where you will find contact information for you T.A. This link will be updated the first week of classes.

8. Check out the Syllabus and Schedule Folder within the Course Resource Folder. Write down any questions you may have for your instructor. Be sure to e-mail your questions or ask them in class.

9. In one to two paragraphs, please introduce yourself to your instructor and T.A.'s. You may choose to answer some of the following questions. What do you like to do when you have free time? Where are you from? What experience/experiences have influenced you to grow and strengthen your testimony? What are your educational goals? How will taking this course help you reach your goals?, etc.

You should have written several thought-out sentences describing yourself.
